Independent Liquor and Gaming Authority Inquiry Extended

Echo Entertainment Group Limited today acknowledged the announcement by the New South Wales Independent Liquor and Gaming Authority (ILGA) that it has amended its terms of reference to permit Ms Gail Furness SC to conduct limited public hearings as part of her current inquiry.

Echo Entertainment also notes that as a result of these public hearings, Ms Furness SC will now report to the ILGA by April 30, 2012.

Echo Entertainment has already provided significant information to the Inquiry and will fully cooperate as requested.
