ASX Announcement

4 November 2022

SHOW CAUSE NOTICES - QUEENSLAND

Further to its announcements of 6 and 25 October 2022 and following determinations of unsuitability made by the Queensland Attorney-General, three subsidiaries of The Star Entertainment Group Limited (ASX code: SGR) (The Star) yesterday individually received show cause notices from the Queensland regulator, the Office of Liquor and Gaming Regulation (OLGR).

The subsidiaries are:

- The Star Entertainment Qld Limited served as licensee of Treasury Brisbane;
- The Star Entertainment Qld Limited also served in its capacity as lessee of The Star Gold Coast; and
- The Star Entertainment Qld Custodian Pty Ltd served as licensee of The Star Gold Coast.

Copies of the notices will be available on The Star's corporate website at <https://www.starentertainmentgroup.com.au/transformation/>.

The notices follow and relate to matters arising from the independent external review into the operations of The Star's casinos in Queensland, undertaken by The Honourable Robert Gotterson AO, the findings of the report of Mr Adam Bell SC in New South Wales and the separate investigation undertaken by OLGR, and the response from the Attorney-General.

The notices set out the potential disciplinary actions which may be taken, which range from taking no further disciplinary action to one or more of the following: a letter of censure, written directions, a penalty of up to $100 million, cancellation or suspension of the relevant casino licence or the appointment of a special manager.

The Star entities have 21 days to respond to the notices. The Minister will consider all responses received before deciding what (if any) disciplinary action to impose or take.
